“ Carol joined our class in our freshman year of 1959 at Magnolia High School, and I can honestly say, without hesitation, that she was the best classmate anyone could ever have. I never heard Carol say an unkind word about any of the teachers or students, and she always had a smile on her face. The words I can think of to describe her are sweet, kind, happy, loyal, and just plain good! Heaven is a much brighter place with Carol there, and I truly look forward to seeing her again!

Carol was truly one of the nicest people I have ever known. She always had the sweetest smile and would go out of her way to make you smile too. I am really sorry that I wasn't a better friend to her.

Carol was like a second mother to me. I loved her dearly. She was nice with a great sense of humour. She showed her love through words and actions. She will be missed dearly.
