

Eileen Marie Liese

May 4, 1921 - February 25, 2019

The time has come for Eileen to reunite with her husband Ralph. The two of them together will keep Heaven entertained with their great sense of humor, jokes, music, and dancing. Ralph will be playing the trombone, while Eileen dances to the tunes. Watch out for those high kicks! She was born to entertain and being a Rockette was a dream come true. Eileen lived a long fulfilling life full of love, laughter, adventure and fame. Survived by many friends and family who will always remember her for the crazy fun person she was.

“ I wish I had known that Eileen passed away as I would have been there to give her the send off she deserved! She and I have been friends for years and years; since her real estate days in fact. I spent many an hour listening to her stories of her wonderful past and looking through the photos she kept. I wonder what happened to those photos that she cherished and those that hung on the wall in the "game room". I hope her two daughters and grandchildren cherish them as much as she did. There are so many memories of my precious friend and I am so saddened by her passing. What a truly amazing person she was. I could go on and on with my memories and all of the special moments spent in her company, but will simply end this by saying may she rest in peace!
