“ Big Gandy will be missed by many. We all are better for having known him and I will always smile thinking of the great times we shared. I loved sitting with him and hearing old stories and watching westerns with him. He was always happy to see his grandchildren and I'll always smile thinking of him saying “come back and see me” at the end of our visits. Thank you for all of the memories, Big Gandy.

Love ya!

“ Big Gandy will be missed by so many people. I know the last few years have been tough and I'm glad he's finally able to rest.

Whenever I'd visit him and my mom, I'd bring my dog, Beau. Big Gandy would greet Beau by saying "Hey, knucklehead!" Even though Big Gandy didn't talk much, I could tell he loved having Beau around. We'd all sit around together watching old westerns while the birds came and visited him at the feeder that hung outside his big front window.

Every time I'd visit, he'd say "Come back and see me!" when we were on our way out. I'll miss that.

“ My best memories of uncle Emery and aunt Della are when I was younger going to visit at their house, all of our families getting together for holidays, or the adults would play cards while the kids did our own things. He was always very good to me. He and aunt Della took me out on their boat fishing and I always remember how much fun it was. He was a good man and will be missed by he is now in a better place where all the other family members we lost are waiting. Rest In Peace uncle emery ”

“ I miss you so much Pop. Feeling heartbroken but very blessed to have had you for so long. You almost made it to your 97th birthday. What a beautiful gift from God it has been to have you as our father! Couldn't have asked for a better one. Always there with a ready smile, a warm hug, words of encouragement, and so much love! You were always such a hard worker and took good care of us, your family, and anyone else that needed a hand up. You taught me that you don't have to be wealthy to be “rich” for family is everything. You taught me how to love with all of my heart. You taught me how to dance and how to look for this little things in life that bring joy. You taught me there is always something to be thankful for no matter what.

Yes, my heart is broken, but I feel so much comfort in knowing you and Mom are together again...probably dancing. You always loved to dance. So much so that even in these last years when your legs could no longer carry you, you still danced...in your dreams. I know this because several mornings you woke up and told me your legs were so tired because you danced ALL NIGHT LONG! She's waited a long time for you Papa. Dance with her. Sing her a song with that beautiful voice of yours. Love you so much. You will stay forever in my heart. If I play my cards right, some day we will meet again. Thank you Papa, for all that you've done, for all the love you've shown, for all the wonderful memories I carry with me. Love you forever and bigger than the whole wide world!

“ Big Gandy was a big inspiration to me. We shared a love for aviation; He served in the Army Air Corps as an aircraft mechanic so I used to hear all sorts of stories of his adventures. One of those stories he used to tell me about was being stationed up near the Artic Circle in Nome, Alaska... I still get a chill thinking about that one. With that passion for aircraft – I followed a similar path to him and ended up joining the Navy as an Aviation Technician.

Growing up, we always looked forward to visiting him and having him over for the holidays. We spent many Easters searching his back yard for well-hidden eggs and continued the same tradition when Candice and I had Alana. The yard in Magnolia was a bit bigger and had even more hiding spots – Alana had her work cut out for her!

He always brought a smile to everyone’s face. He was a kind soul, a great role model, and was one of the most genuine people I have ever met. We will miss him dearly...

We love you Big Gandy. Thank you for all of the beautiful memories.

Love,

Luke, Alana, and Candice

“ I was raised by a man who knew that family values meant more than anything else in this world. He taught me my work ethic and I got my troubleshooting skill set from him. He was a loving father and wonderful provider. He was faithful, honest, caring, and a true friend to all that knew him. He would come to your aid or give you the shirt off his back if needed. His word was true. He was an incredible role model. He was a man of integrity and he was loved by many who knew him. I will miss him greatly but I know that I will see him again. He knew the Lord. He fought hard. He ran a good race. I'm sure he heard the Lord say, well done thou good and faithful servant. Go rest high, dad. Until we meet again.

Your favorite son. Keith

“ He taught me so many things. How to have a poker face, how to play Blackjack, all about birds. He was very patient with me and I was 100 miles an hour pretty much my whole childhood. Larger than life and always smiling I will forever remember our Christmas's together The Thanksgiving dinners and your music.... You will be missed but I am resting on the promise that I will see you again in heaven one day. I am so thankful that I was able to go and spend some serious one on one time with you when you moved to magnolia. I'm thankful for those back porch conversations where I got to learn about my grandma. I'm so thankful then I finally got To know her through you. I will love and miss you always.
