

Lonnie Frank Smith

September 18, 1961 - July 8, 2019

Lonnie Frank Smith, 57, of Magnolia, formerly of Beeville, passed away Monday, July 8, 2019 after a three-year battle with cancer.

He was born September 18, 1961, in Payson, Utah, to Frank Max and Carolyn Susan (Montoya) Smith. His mother later married Robert Milton Hardman, who raised Lonnie and his sister as his own.

Lonnie graduated from A.C. Jones High School in 1979 and began his career with Transco Gas Pipeline and continued his employment with them as they took him to the Houston area and eventually transitioned to Williams, from which he retired. He enjoyed tinkering with cars and teasing friends and family mercilessly. He was an honest, hard-working, teddy bear of a man whose absence will be felt deeply by friends and family.

He married Evelyn Foyt July 7, 2001, in El Campo, Texas.

He was preceded in death by his father, his step-father, and his brother Sean Patrick Hardman.

He is survived by his mother, Carolyn Hardman, Beeville; his wife, Evelyn Smith and step-son Dustin Heimann, Magnolia; his children Stephanie (Sean) Trader, Robert Smith, Samantha Smith, California; his sisters Connie (James) Hatfield, Beeville, and Teresa (Jeff) Kennedy, Fort Worth; nephews, and grandchildren Christopher Ramirez and Alyssa Trader.

Services will be Saturday, July 20, 2019 at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Beeville, with prayer of the Rosary at 10:30 a.m., followed by the funeral Mass at 11:00. There will be a reception following the memorial mass in the church cafeteria.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his memory to St. Joseph's or your place of worship.
