Sandra Louise McMayon, lovingly known as Sandy, 83 Resident of Magnolia, Texas passed away Friday, July 24, 2020.

Sandy was born to Martin Luther and Lida May Moody, October 23, 1936 and raised in Houston, Texas, she was an only child. Sandy was a loving daughter, wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. Sandy had the kindest soul and anyone that meet her loved her, she had a smile that would lighten anyone's day.

Sandy married the love of her life Jack Douglas (JD) McMayon on April 3, 1954 in Houston. They were happily married for 37 years. In June of 1954 she graduated from Reagan High School. She was a long-time employee of Southern Pacific Truck Lines.

In her younger days, her passion was riding horses with her husband, JD and her two children, Mary and Douglas. She loved spending time with her family and watching Mary compete in the local rodeos. She was a lover of animals, owning horses, raccoons and even a squirrel but her favorite of all was her dogs. Sandy loved sharing many dances with her husband JD anywhere and everywhere they could. She was a member of The United Daughters of Confederacy. After retiring at the age of 70, she loved spending time with her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She also loved to travel with friends to the casinos in Louisiana. In her later years, she learned how to use a tablet. She downloaded Spider-Solitaire and Color by Numbers and that became her favorite past time, but wasn't as computer savvy as she thought she was because whenever something happened to her tablet she would always ask her daughter Mary to fix it, which happened on a daily basis. She loved to tell people about how much she loved playing those games on her tablet.

Sandy is survived by her children, Douglas McMayon, Mary Mims and her spouse Woody Brown, Grandchildren, Christy and Matt Garcia, Kyle Mims and fiancé Alison Schmidt, Michelle and Matt Moudry, Michael and Angie Brown, great grandchildren, Cassidy, Matt Jr., Ryan, Issac, Alyssa, Corbin, Kendall, Jayden, Ashlyn and many nieces and nephews. Also survived by her, are her two beloved dogs Roxie and Brandy and her great grand dog Loki.

Sandy was preceded in death by her parents Martin and Lida May Moody and her beloved husband JD.
