

Albert M. Turner III

July 26, 2024

Albert Martin Turner III, affectionately known as “Man,” was born in Raceland, Louisiana to the union of Albert Martin Turner Jr. and the late Gail Murray Turner.

In 1993, Albert met his childhood sweetheart, Letasha Berry, and their love story blossomed into a marriage in Greensburg, Louisiana in 2003. Together, they built a loving family, blessed with four beautiful children and one grandchild, with two more grandchildren on the way. After Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Albert moved his family from Louisiana to Texas, where they joined Memorial Church of Christ. There, Albert was baptized and accepted Jesus Christ into his life as his Lord and Savior.

Albert had a knack for DIY projects around the house, often working on them with his sons. He was a dedicated New Orleans Saints fan, enjoyed cracking jokes, and had a remarkable ability to make everyone around him laugh. Albert was known for his warmth, humor, and the deep connections he forged with so many people.

Albert is preceded in his homegoing by his mother, Gail Murray-Turner; sister, Patrice Turner-Lawson; grandparents, Albert Martin Turner and Helen Turner, Mack and Martha Slay; nephews, Chad and Marcel Turner; cousin, Joseph Murray; and mother-in-law, Viola Berry-Jones.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Letasha; two sons, Albert and Shawn; two daughters, Tyrielle and Ayrionne (Demarcus); one granddaughter, Juliana; three sisters, Rhonna Robertson (CJ), Sandra Turner, and Tracy Caldwell; two brothers, Renee Caldwell and Darnell Hogan; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Albert's presence will be deeply missed, but his legacy of love, laughter, and faith will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Turner family and friends during this difficult time.

“ I miss you so much. The grandkids are coming and you're not here to hold them. I know you're smiling down on us. I pray for you every day.. A year is almost coming up and I know God will provide everything that we need. Until I can see what you see, take your rest baby. I love you with all of my whole heart.
