

Alejandro Nevarez

June 5, 2017

Alejandro Nevarez, age 48, died on Monday, June 5, 2017, in Magnolia, TX. Alejandro was born in Mexico City, Mexico, son of Justino Nevarez and Maria Sapien de Nevarez, beloved husband of Rosalva Nevarez (Chaidez), amazing dad to Alejandro Noe, Justin Anthony, and Briana Juliemarie, brother to David, Jose Luis, Miguel Angel and Jorge Antonio. Alejandro lived in Mexico City, and in his parent's ancestral home of La Estancia, Durango. In 1979, Alejandro moved to Chicago, IL where he became a lifelong fan of the World Champion Chicago Cubs and met his beloved wife Rosalva. Alejandro, loved cars, baseball and to fidget with anything electronic which included fidgeting with the car radio while purposely ignoring anything you said to him. You knew to just give up because he would just continue to hit more buttons. You could always catch him pretending to swing a bat and make a home run; he always wanted to be a baseball player. A simple call to Alejandro would also solve all of your entertainment system issues, including your wiring issues like the stereo, tv, and more. Alejandro would talk your ear off about the horsepower of his 1971 Monte Carlo he owned a while back and it's turning radius and throw some baseball statistics into the conversation. He could also diagnose a car problem over the phone by simply listening to the car noises. We will always remember how his kind, quiet, and patient personality combined with his forgiving and loving heart to deeply touch our lives forever. Alejandro's wake will be held on Friday, June 9, 2017 from 5pm to 8pm at Magnolia Funeral Home at 811 S Magnolia Boulevard, Magnolia, Texas. His burial will be on Saturday, June 10, 2017 at Magnolia Cemetery, at 10 am.
