

Alex Morris

December 22, 2019

Samuel Alexander "Alex" Morris was the son of Jerome Wayne Morris and Martha Duncan Morris. Alex was born October 28, 1974 in Arlington TX, where he attended school. He attended Rice University in Houston where he played football.

After several jobs in the financial industry, Alex changed to teaching and coaching. From 2011 to 2018, he taught history and geography and coached football and soccer. After his father's death in 2018, he left teaching to manage his parents' property in Reklaw, TX. Alex was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, R. D. and Virginia Kay Duncan, his paternal grandparents, Robert and Hazel Morris, his sister Judy Erwin, his aunt Sarah Duncan Halick, and his father Jerome Wayne Morris.

He is survived by his mother Martha Duncan Morris of Reklaw, his uncle Bob Morris of Emory, his uncle John Morris of Ft. Worth, his aunt Jennie Morris Malm of Ft. Worth, his aunt Carol Duncan Lance of Tyler, and his uncle Roland Duncan of LaRue. He is also survived by 14 cousins, many extended relations, and many dear friends.

In lieu of flowers please donate to your favorite charity in Alex's name.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend our condolences to the Morris family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Coach Morris, you were sunshine in the life of so many. Earth has lost a treasure and heaven has gained a new resident. Prayers for all of us who treasured him and especially Fuji's Mom.
