“ I remember the first time I met Amber about 8.5 years ago, playing pool and drinking a bottle of Bud Light. Her beautiful smile and infectious personality brightened up my (and all those around her) day/night. I remember when she (and her beautiful girls) drove over a hour away to spend New Years Eve with me coz I had a fear of fireworks.

I'm greatly sadden to hear of her sad passing, as we tried to make plans to meet up throughout the years but unfortunately life got away with us. I was so happy that she finally found the love of life and got her happiness with Jeremiah. Amber endured a lot but always came out fighting.

Her beautiful girls were her main priority and I enjoyed seeing her amazing life through social media. Family time was always important to her but she did always make time for a quick chat.

Amber, I will celebrate our 'twin' birthday with a cupcake and an ice cold Bud Light. Thank you for being a part of my journey. You will be sadly missed (and loved) but never forgotten!!

Luv always Caz xox 🤍📧🤍
