

Andrew Arendall

June 3, 2025

Andrew Arthur John Arendall, 34, of Hockley, Texas, passed away on June 3, 2025. A memorial service will take place at Magnolia Funeral Home on June 14, 2025 at 1:30 PM.

Andrew was born in The Woodlands, Texas. He graduated with a Business Management degree from Sam Houston State University.

Andrew was a man with many hobbies. Between photography, fantasy football, and F1, some of his greatest joys was spending time with his friends watching 90's movies, sports, and playing games together. Andrew also loved animals, especially his cats, Weasel, Fury, and Ripley.

One of the many things Andrew will be remembered for is how kind and thoughtful he was. He was an incredible gift giver; he gave so much thought to every birthday and Christmas present. Andrew had a charming and genuine smile, and his quick wit made conversations uplifting and meaningful. He always loved making people laugh.

Lastly, Andrew was also selfless. Andrew cared for people deeply and wanted much for others. He always helped others to achieve their goals and looked out for their goals more than his own. Andrew loved his family and wanted to make them proud. Andrew made them so proud.

Andrew was preceded in death by his father, Earl Arendall. He is survived by his mother, Anita Arendall, his brother, Erich Arendall, his brother Travis Jordan and his wife Cristina Jordan, his sister, Amanda Crumpler and her husband Christopher Crumpler, and his little brother, Phillip Arendall and his wife Kylie Arendall. Andrew is also survived by his nephews, Carson Jordan and Tyler Jordan, and his niece, Karina Jordan.

In honor of Andrew's love for animals, his family asks for donations to be made to the Texas Animal Society in lieu of flowers. www.texasanimalsociety.org

Following the close of the service, a reception will take place at Anita Arendall & Pete Tarantola's household: 2448 Northline Rd Conroe, TX 77284

Please feel free to join for food and fellowship and to celebrate Andrew's life.

“ Once upon a time about 17 years ago, I met Drew playing Halo 3 with our very good friend Matt. Little did I know then the impact Drew would have on my life. Over these past 17 years I don't think I've talked to anyone more other than my wife. He wasn't just an online gaming friend, he was my best friend. From playing games, to watching sports, to our annual NFL Draft watch party, to talking about life I truly enjoyed every second of knowing you. I could always talk to Drew about everything, even about the harder things in life. He helped me get out of an abusive relationship I was in when we were younger and I will never forget the much needed support he gave me to have to courage to get out of it. He would always ask me how my wife is doing/how's life going whenever I'd join the chat. He oftentimes would have to be the calming voice in the room when things got heated in the chat. He was truly the most kindhearted person I've ever met. I still cannot fathom life without him. Even as I type this it doesn't seem real. What I wouldn't give to see his name go online on Discord one more time. I could go on forever but I'll never forget you Drew, you're forever my brother, I love you man.

To Phil, Drew looked up to you like no other. He always talked about you in such high esteem and was always so proud of what you accomplished in your career. You are a great brother.

To Mrs. Arendall,

Though I never met you I can tell by knowing your sons that you are a very kindhearted woman. I know there's not enough words to console your grief but my family and I send our deepest regards to you. Drew was an awesome guy and the impact he had on my life wouldnt have been possible without you. Thank you.

PS. To Drew, I WOKE UP FEELING THE CHEEZIEST COACH
