Many of her Hanta Yowin sisters visited to say their final farewells. She retired from the Texas Department of Criminal Justice in 2019. She was an active participant across the United State and was fondly called by her rendezvous friends as Annie Two Pots ; as she always was known for two pots of coffee on her campfire for anyone to enjoy. Her creative talent making flower arrangements will be sadly missed by family and friends. Ann's leather work can be seen displayed in many homes. The many grandchildren, nieces and nephews will miss Ann's endless Christmas spirit.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Ann's family and friends during this difficult time.

No services are scheduled through the funeral home.

“ To Kim and family, I enjoyed the little time that I was able to spend with you all. Thank you for allowing me to become a small part of your experience and welcoming me into your home. Ms. Ann put a smile on my face each time I saw her. Kim, what an amazing person you are, I hope we stay in touch! You all are in my thoughts.
