“ I first met Anne when I was 17 years old. Not long before I married her brother. I could not have asked for a better sister in law and best friend. I will always cherish the 55 years that she was in my life. I know Heaven is celebrating. Love, Sharon

“ And and I we're friends long before I introduced her to my brother Riley 2 months later they married. The best sister-in-law you would ever ask for we did a lot of things together even in our Elder years after her husband passed away she would come spend the weekend with me we always had our coffee early in the morning on the front porch no matter 32 degrees we would wrap up in a blanket sit out and have her coffee I remember those days so well we did a lot of other fun things also too many to list on here. I have so many fond memories. And I will see you later tell my brother I said hello.
