“ I have known Betty Rose since she was an awkward young girl until she bloomed into a lovely young mother. She was one of my athletes that competed in bowling, basketball and track. She always tried her best and never missed a competition. She was a key player for many championship basketball teams. She was always helping the newer and younger athletes. Betty was compassionate with a heart of gold. Although she faced many obstacles in her young life, she continued to be proud and share a smile. May Heaven welcome her with open arms.
