She loved to travel, fish, trail ride, play games and sports, gardening, shop for the grandchildren and bake all things sweet. She fought a long courageous battle with cancer and remained faithful in the Lord and his love for her through it all. She had an enormous strength and love for life and family. Betty was a happy, always gracious, and loving person that will be missed beyond any words that could be spoken.

In lieu of flowers a donation could be made in her honor to her favorite charity St. Jude Children's Hospital.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Betty's family and friends during this difficult time.
