“ We were so fortunate to get time with Billye and all the family. I think of all the Binford women and their ways often. Wish I could be there for the service. Hope to see everyone soon.

“ Aunt Billye,
What a smart, sassy, opinionated, funny, and loving woman she was.
She would hug us, feed us, love us and set us straight.
We loved her for who she was.. a force of nature. As my uncle used to say, BINFORD!
We will miss her!

“ We always looked forward to getting to visit with all the Binford aunts, uncles, and cousins; and we could count on lots of laughter and love and bountiful food. Aunt Billye was often a ringleader behind some of that laughter, and in recent years we depended on her notes and calls to stay in touch with the family. We'll miss that connection very much.

“ Aunt Billye was a great cook and always generous with her time, her home and many jars of grape jelly and fig preserves. She was faithful to write many letters and loved a phone call. We loved her and will miss her dearly. Jennifer and Steve
