

Ms. Bobbie "Grandy" Jean Napper

November 17, 2025

Bobbie, age 96, passed away on November 17, 2025, surrounded by her loving family.

Born in Greenville, Mississippi, she was the oldest of four. She married Bill on November 1, 1949. They moved to Tomball with their two daughters in 1957 from Spring. They shared 42 wonderful years together, until Bill's passing.

She spent many years working for Stewart Title company taking a break to raise their daughters. Later she worked for Tomball ISD. Grandy's favorite things were family, giving, and serving. Her hobbies were cooking, especially homemade rolls, shopping, traveling, and painting.

She was a charter member of Spring Creek Fellowship where she faithfully served the Lord all her days.

Bobbie will be remembered as a special, sweet lady who loved the Lord and looked forward to Heaven.

Survived by her sister Diane and husband Tommy Carter; daughters and sons-in-law Ava and Dennis Chapman, and Beverly and Mike McCracken; granddaughters Hollie Aranda and Katie Binnicker, and grandson Brent and wife Rebekah Chapman; great-grandchildren Macie, Averie, Alec, Annah, Nolan, Mason, and Brileigh.

Bobbie was preceded in death by her husband Bill Napper, her parents Daisy and James R., and siblings Nancy Wilson and Jimmy McMinn.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Bobbie's family and friends during this difficult time.
