“ I'm not sure how I was related to him, but I called him my uncle. My grandpa / grandma: Orvel Vern Casey / Alma Getrude Casey introduced me to him, when I was little.
Bobby taught me how to draw and tried to teach me how to whittle. He was a good relative: one of the best that I have memories of. I'm so sorry that I couldn't keep in touch with him. Rest in peace. Truly.

“ Bob and I got in touch by facebook. I'm not sure who contacted who, but I know we both loved Elvis. Once I send him a CD of our band and he absolutely loved it told everybody about it. He was such a nice and generous guy. Unfortunately we never met in person. He would have liked us to visit him and his darling Darlene. He is still with me in my thoughts and I like to think he is still picking his guitar up there in the clouds. Take care, Bob.
