

Bridgette Hacker

November 1, 2021

Bridgette Ray Hacker went home to be with our creator on November 1st, 2021, in The Woodlands, Texas. She came into this world a San Francisco girl, but she left this world as a Texas Angel. As the Cherokee proverb reads: When she was born, she cried, and the world rejoiced. When she died, she rejoiced, and the world cries.

Bridgette was many things to so many of us. She was an accomplished entrepreneur, businesswoman, and co-owner of a successful company of 33+ years. She was also a phenomenal tax professional who helped so many families and friends with her love of helping the “little guy”. Most notably, she was a giver. She was placed on this earth to selflessly help all those around her. She gave her time, patience, energy, and love to all that needed it, even to those that didn’t know they needed it. Above all, and most importantly, she was our Daughter, Sister, Wife, Mother, Oma, Aunt, Cousin, and Best Friend. Our time with her on this mortal plain may be at an end, and until we are reunited, know she is with each one of us.

Bridgette was preceded in death by her beautiful mother, Johnnie Katherine Buyher.

She was survived by her fathers, Robert Marshal and Jack Osborn; her sisters and brothers, Barbra Short, Bobbie Brennan, Robert Rivera, Carlos Loayza, Alfonso Loayza, Christina Loayza, Maria Medena, Janice Osborn, Tana Washington, Shane Osborn, and Carie Osborn; her husband, Grandville Hacker; her children, Tangee Keys-Marcy, Alicia Keys, Ken Hacker, Ryan Hacker, and Trevor Hacker; her grandkids, Kayla Keys, Brian Holbrook, Greg Williams, Lucas Marcy, Joyous Hanna, and Dillion Hanna; her great grandkids, Emma Brown, Ethan Brown, Elisabeth Brown, and Everly Brown; and many wonderful nieces, nephews, and cousins.

“She made the broken look beautiful and strong look invincible. She walked with the universe on her shoulders and made it look like a pair of wings.” - Ariana Dancu

The prayers and condolences of the Addison family and staff go out to her family and friends.

“ I remember the first time we discovered each other, it was so exciting. I knew of the existence of my Sisters. But to finally meet all of them was like filling a hole inside me. Bridgette immediately demonstrated her special gifts of passion for life, love of people, and a high energy spirit. We hit it off right away. She will be sorely missed, but never forgotten. We shall meet again. Love, your Brother, Robert Rivera.

“ Thank you Bridge for finding me after fifty years of not knowing where you and your sister were. Thank you for all the great conversations we had about life and loves. I am sad that I did not go before you, peace be with you. Love you, Dad, see you soon
