

Bruce Jett

August 10, 2022

Bruce Jett, age 61 of Houston, passed away August 10, 2022.

Bruce was born at the Methodist Hospital in Houston, Texas to his parents - Barbara Joan Peoples Engnath & Pierce "PJ" Bruce Jett. Bruce lived in New Orleans and resided in Houston during his lifetime.

Bruce was "larger than life", most would say!

Bruce played Football at the University of Arkansas; he was an Avid Golfer (played on the Mini-Senior Tour in the early 80's) and was a 1st Class Softball Player for over 30 years. He traveled all over the U.S. playing Softball and achieved many awards along the way.

He worked in the Door Business along side of his Dad, PJ, for several years before starting his own business – Jett Door Service. Bruce continued his career with Hoelscher Weatherstrip until his retirement earlier this year.

Bruce had the "Biggest Heart" of anyone, he never met a Stranger and would give the shirt off his back for someone in need. Bruce loved all of the people in his life, no matter how long or short of a time that he knew them. It's evident by the number of lives Bruce touched throughout his lifetime.

Bruce is survived by his sister, Jane't Denise LeGardeur, his brother-in-law, Jack "Chief" Lutsch & his Aunt Jeanette Jett

Stepbrothers - Curtis, Robert & Alan Grissom, as well as their spouses & families

Nieces – Greer LeGardeur Riley, Bailee Warren, Abbey McDaniel & Madison McFarland
