“ Carolyn and I met at Kingwood Church of Christ in the 60s. She has been a dear friend all these years. We would see each other occasionally as the years went by but years later we met again when we were going to Buckshot Church of Christ. She was a precious person and loved Jesus very much. I know she is in heaven with many of her family and friends rejoicing. God bless her family that will miss her here. 🙏🙏🙏

“ My dear sis, I miss you so much already. You were a true warrior and so glad to know "you are fine". six feet under and you are still fine. You were full of love and grace and were my best friend. I have already tried to call you several times today. Tomorrow will be your day to shine. The only thing missing is Celtic Thunder. I am sure they will miss you being in their audience. Say hello to Mama when you see her. Love you girl. Libbyann.

“ I've know Carolyn since 1962 when she married my brother. As I've stated before, her love for family and friends was remarkable, and the fight she fought to stay alive and be with them is beyond anything I've ever seen! Plus, I must add, I always thought she made the very best iced tea I've ever had, even to this day. Rest in peace, Carolyn. You fought one heckuva fight and left a legacy of solid love.

“ Carolyn and I have been friends for over 42 years. I loved her like a sister. We met at Tomball Savings in 1978 and have been best friends since then. We had a lot of memories that we shared and I will really miss her. She gave me my nickname (which I will not share). I will really miss her.
