

Catherine Bauch

August 9, 2025

Catherine Sue Bauch of Cypress, Texas peacefully passed away on August 9, 2025, into the loving arms of our Heavenly Father, with her husband at her bedside. Born in Madison, Wisconsin, she is survived by her husband/partner of over 17 years, Michael Richard Teeter.

Catherine received from Edgewood College a B.S, Business Administration 1981 – 1984, and a M.B.A, Business 1985 – 1988 while working. Her career was in the Purchasing Sector in multiple industries at the senior and upper management levels.

Catherine had a love for all animals, always had dogs around and wanted to put her hands on them to pet them. Also, she enjoyed baking, listening to music, reading, traveling, collecting various teddy bears and dragon sculptures.

"But I'm just so in awe of the person that Cath was. Just the incredible sense of positivity, the sense of humor that she had, but almost unparalleled resilience and the fact that she never ever, at least to my ear, ever heard her complain about her situation battling with pancreatic cancer. She was so incredibly brave. And she's appreciative of the life she had and the life that she had with Mike."

Scott Parazynski MD, Retired NASA Astronaut

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Catherine's family and friends during this difficult time.

“ Through Mike, we came to know Cath's remarkable spirit—her sharp wit, unwavering resilience, and the grace with which she faced her cancer battle. She inspired us all with her strength and humor, even in the most difficult times. We are honored to have known her through the love and stories Mike shared, and our hearts are with him and the family.
