

Chanthang Yim

January 26, 2025

Chanthang Yim, age 81 of Tomball, passed away January 26, 2025.

Chanthang, also known as “Yey Khom” was born and raised in Battambang, Cambodia. During the Cambodian Khmer Rouge War, she escaped to refugee camps in Thailand during the late 1970’s. In 1981, she and her family were sponsored by Lutheran Social Services and immigrated to Jacksonville, FL where she worked as an automotive assembler. She retired in 2010 and resided in Florida for 43 years before she moved to Houston, TX to be closer to her daughter and granddaughter.

She was a strong believer in Christ and studied her Bible every day. She loved spending time laughing with her granddaughter who brought so much joy to her life.

Yey Khom was preceded in death by her husband, Loeth Phoeuk. She is survived by her daughter, Jessica and fiancé, Chris, her granddaughter, Layla, Jessica’s siblings and their spouses, Dorey and Sophady Uong, Vathey and Sras Yan, Mara and Syna Phoeuk, along with many more beloved family members in Cambodia, Florida and Maryland.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Yim family during this difficult time.
