

Charles Alton Abernathy

January 17, 1938 - January 18, 2019

Charles (Grampa Chuck)

Abernathy went home to be with the Lord on Jan.18, 2019, one day after his 81st birthday. Chuck was born in Freer TX, and graduated from A& I University in Kingsville, TX as a petroleum engineer. He and his wife, Yvonne, pursued his oil career at various cities in the USA and 17 years in Saudi Arabia/Libya. Following the Middle Eastern venture, they settled in Cimarron Country, Magnolia where Chuck became an active realtor/broker and created his own company, Grampa's Realty. He will be greatly missed by his wife, Yvonne, his 4 children, 5 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren and many clients and friends. There will be a Celebration of Life gathering at their home on February 23 at 5:00 PM. A bonfire and refreshments will follow. Everyone is invited to join us!!

40302 Donna Ana 77354

In lieu of flowers, find Chuck's favorite cause at:

GoFundMe.com

search

In Chuck's memory

Tribute Wall

TH

“ Yvonne, I recently heard of Grandpa Chuck’s passing. Please know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers. I had a lot of great memories of him! What a character! The man who drove a lawnmower to bonfires, all the political notes sent from “
The Old Cowboy”, Wishing you Peace at this difficult time.
Tammi Hudson

Tammi Hudson - February 06, 2019 at 01:56 AM

CH

Tammi
You need to understand the real Cuck Abernathy.
A sadistic piece of work that took great joy in beating the crap out of kids and women. He would tell you, with a gleam in his eye about how he beat his 2nd wife with a pistol.
Frankly, he'd be locked up in prison with his son Brad if he'd done half the stuff he'd done anytime in the last 30 years.
No, he won't be missed by at least 2 of his kids.

CharleAbernathy@Reagan.com - March 31, 2019 at 05:05 PM

CH

Yvonne.
I've sent you an email asking you to remove the lie associated with me. Jeannie and I could give 2 f u x about Cuck. You need to rewrite this bio. My personal belief is that he's burning in hell for his last atrocity towards me. He never changed. He never was the Bible thumping Christian he claimed to be. And there are many verses in the Bible that talk about hypocrisy from wannabe Christians.
Y'all sit around the Donna Karen Commune "Praying" while supporting your drug addict son and his many illegitimate kids, and their illegitimate kids. It's pretty gross. You openly endorse a hedonistic lifestyle of drug use, robberies, adultery and deceit by allowing your home to be used as a base of operations.
I'll ask again, remove the lie that he will be missed by 4 of his kids. You know damn good and we'll that's BS.

CharleAbernathy@Reagan.com - March 31, 2019 at 05:14 PM