

Charles Dash

February 20, 2024

Charles Dixon Dash passed away Tuesday, February 20th, in Houston Texas. Charles had managed many accomplishments throughout his lifetime such as, winning bronze, silver and gold medals for ice carving championships, even some belonging to the Olympics. Also having been a chef for nearly all his life, a successful career spanning 40 years ending as an executive chef with SFE. He had a profound passion and love for fishing and outdoors that all family and friends shared.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Dash family during this difficult time.

Tribute Wall

“ I was fortunate enough to speak with Chef Dash through my career in K12 foodservice. Chef Dash was a kind, caring person who was passionate about the work he did and the life he lived. I remember to this day he mentioned I should taste a wild caught salmon compared to a farm raised one to taste the great flavor of salmon.

My condolences to all the loved ones of Charles Dash.

“ I may have only know Charles for 7 years, but that was the the best years I could have ever asked for. He always joked that when me and Dixon got married he was going to embarrass me at the wedding. His speech is something I will forever remember.

“ Charles was one of the most unselfish men I knew, always putting other's needs before his. Always planning the next fishing trip or project for the house, like make a table from a downed tree. He loved his family, pets, kids, nature and turning food into works of art.

I love you Charles and I deeply miss you.

“ *I met Chef Charles at the Wyndham Greenspoint hotel at the age of 19 I am 45 now and he has inspired me to be a better chef every day because of everything that he instilled in me!
He took the time with me when most chefs did not want to waste time on me he showed me what it means to be a leader. He showed me what it means to be a great chef. He showed me what it means to be a great dad he showed me what it means to have a heart Chef Charles you will be missed !*
