

Charles Robert Davenport

December 23, 2015

Charles Robert Davenport passed away on December 23, 2015 at the age of 72. Born on February 1, 1943 in Duncan, OK, he was the only child of the late Charles and Cleo Davenport. He is survived by Jean, his loving wife of 53 years, and daughters Robyn (husband Jeff Horn) and Terri (husband David Sumlin). He is also survived by four grandchildren who loved their Papa D – Robin, Morgan (husband Zach), Bradley, and Amanda.

Robert began his career in the oil and gas industry and became a Vice President of Coastal Corporation before resigning at the age of 50 to pursue his Master's Degree in Religion at Southwestern Seminary. He began serving as the Singles and Pastoral Care Minister at The Metropolitan Baptist Church in Houston, TX. In 2000 he was called to be the senior pastor at Mount Sylvan Baptist Church in Lindale, TX. After serving more than 10 years in this position with his wife Jean by his side, he retired to Magnolia, TX to be closer to his family. Robert and Jean joined First Baptist Church in Magnolia where Robert served on various committees and occasionally preached on Sunday evenings.

Robert made an impact on the lives of many people and he will be dearly missed.

“ Oh my... Bob just popped into my head. I worked for him at Reserve Oil & Gas/Pontotoc Oil. I was his secretary. Working for him was so much fun. This was in the late 70's. I will never forget him. He was a super special person. I am so sorry for your loss. Karen Busby.
