“ Erin,

'm very sorry for you loss. I know you loved Clinton deeply and can't imagine how difficult this time of year must be for you and your family. My condolences.

I have a 2005 poem in your handwriting, which you penned for your brother and shared wi

“ My tribute to my son...well he was just the most loving person I have ever known. He accepted everyone just as they were, no judgment or expectations. He would give a friend or stranger his last dollar or the shirt off his back. He loved his family, niece
