

Craig Voelkel

January 19, 2017

Craig Voelkel, age 62 of Tomball, passed away January 19, 2017. The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to his family.

Tribute Wall

JD

“Mary, I am so sorry for your loss. My heart breaks with yours, but Mom and Craig (Ralph) are watching over all of us. I will never forget him as the protector. He was always so special to my entire family. I wish you peace in your mourning. I will alw

Julie Dorsey - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

TG

“I am so sad to here this news. Craig and I have been friends for many years but just recently started talking on the phone, I will miss our conversations and friendship greatly.

Tim Gilmore - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

TG

“Tim & Dyan Gilmore lit a candle in memory of Craig Voelkel

Tim & Dyan Gilmore - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

DB

“Diana Blough lit a candle in memory of Craig Voelkel

Diana Blough - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

RT

“ Mary,

I worked with Craig at Dmac Construction for many years. His love for you was very obvious. He was proud of you and always spoke lovingly and respectfully about you.

Likewise, when you were hurting or life had thrown you a curve, he would someti

Roger Tornga - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

RT

“ Roger Tornga lit a candle in memory of Craig Voelkel

Roger Tornga - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

DK

“ Dick Kahrs lit a candle in memory of Craig Voelkel

Dick Kahrs - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

GB

“ Craig and I met at a construction site just North of Greens Rd and 45 North in Houston. Right off the bat we became best of friends. We even had the same 1970's desert boots on and this was in the early 1990's. Those desert boots were hard to get!

Craig

Greg Bayer - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

GB

“ Greg Bayer lit a candle in memory of Craig Voelkel

Greg Bayer - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM