

Daniel Gentner

December 17, 2020

Daniel Joseph Gentner, beloved father, son, and brother, passed away on December 17, 2020, after battling chronic health issues. Born and raised in Detroit, Michigan in 1956 he spent part of his formative years in California before returning to Michigan and eventually settling in Texas. Dan was a mechanic by trade for most of his career and he always enjoyed teaching his son about working on cars. He was known as a loyal person who enjoyed socializing and spending time with friends. He cared deeply about his family and was frequently around to help his mother with household chores and yardwork. Despite dealing with medical issues later in life, Dan found enjoyment in many activities including riding motorcycle, playing pool, grilling, doing projects around the house and yard, and watching car racing. To the end he remained an avid fan of military history and science fiction including Star Trek and Star Wars. Dan is survived by his mother Claudette, his brother John, his son Daniel Jr., and grandchildren Jillian and Josef.

The condolences of the Addison family and staff go out to his family and friends.
