“ A gift from God by Bernise McCracken Jan. 15th, 1981
Among the priceless gifts, dear God, that you have given me, Is the one and I treasure in my heart, the gift of memory.
That all I need to scroll along with dreams of happy days when you made my life and love sublime.
In memory, I see old friends as they pass in review and from the mists of yesterday a whisper says "I do".
It is my magic carpet that rolls back, the years and seems the absolute fulfillment of my most endearing dreams. That is why as days pass into months and months turn into years. I thank you God for this priceless gift with all its smiles and tears. I love you all, rest in heaven until we see you again!

“ David has been one of the best neighbors we have ever had. I've never seen anyone continue to work in their yard during an illness like he did. He loved keeping that yard beautiful. I will miss him every time I am outside and dont see him in the yard. Mary - please let us know how we can help you with whatever you need.
