

David Payne

June 23, 2017

David Troman Payne, age 67, died in Spring, Texas, on Friday, June 23, 2017. After a battle with lung cancer.

Born November 5, 1949, in Yuma, Arizona, he lived throughout Oklahoma and Texas before settling in Magnolia Texas. He worked as a car mechanic until he retired in 2013. David had a love for family, Nascar and the Dallas Cowboys.

Survivors include his daughter Jennifer Collins and her husband Bryce Collins their children Carter and Ella; son Jamie White his children Shane and Catherine; son Michael Payne and his wife Allyson their children Makayla and Reid.

Numerous other special relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

KL

“ Dear Jennifer and family,

I am so sorry for your loss but know that the many wonderful memories you shared with your Dad will be in your hearts always. It is never easy, but the good memories will help ease the pain over time. Prayers for your Dad in Hea

Kathy Leibold - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

SG

“ David you will be missed by many. I will always remember our family holiday dinners at mom & dad's & will make Shrimp Dip in your memory from now on. We loved you like a brother.

Scooter & Tammy Gum - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

CD

“ My sincere sympathy to the family. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in God's promise to soon "swallow up death forever" and "wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8)

Cheryl D. - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

DP

“ To the Love of my life, Rest In Peace, I Loved you more than anyone will ever know. Your Wife Daina.

Daina Payne - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

DP

“ Daina Payne lit a candle in memory of David Payne

Daina Payne - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM