

Delores Asiedu

November 17, 2024

Delores was a strong, intelligent and creative woman. As an engineer, She excelled as a designer of pressure vessels and nuclear subs. She loved her animals and showed and bred dogs and cats at different times in her life. She also loved baking and decorating cookies with the family.

She is survived by her loving husband, Stephen, daughter and son-in-law Dawn and Walter Bates, grandchildren Matthew Bates and Courtney and Ricky McConathy, great-grandchildren Emily and Brody McConathy, and baby brother (as she called him) Tom Williams and wife Kelly and their children.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to Delores's family and friends during this difficult time.

No services are scheduled through the funeral home.
