

Diane Nieto

December 5, 2025

Diane Nieto, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away on December 5, 2025. Diane lived a life full of warmth, humor, and unforgettable stories. She loved the Beatles, cheering for the Cardinals, and spending cozy evenings watching movies with her family.

Despite years of weekly treatments for end-stage kidney and liver failure, she faced every challenge with remarkable strength and resilience. Her courage and tenderness inspired everyone who knew her.

A memorial service will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, December 13, in Magnolia, Texas. Following the service, a celebration of Diane's life will be held at Andy's Bar and Grill at 4:00 p.m., 27200 US-290 Ste 160, Cypress, TX 77433.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donating to Diane's GoFundMe account to help cover funeral expenses.

Diane will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Nieto family during this difficult time.

Tribute Wall

“ Diane, you will be deeply missed. Thank you for always being there for me, even during my younger years when I know I wasn't always easy. You always had an open door and an open heart for me and my family. I'm sorry for the trouble Angel and I caused while growing up, but I am forever grateful for your patience, love, and understanding.

You were there for me during some of the moments when I needed support the most, and you even stepped in with the care and guidance of a mother when I had my first child. Your kindness, strength, and unwavering support meant more to me than words can express.

Thank you for everything you gave so freely. May you rest in peace.

*With love,
Viviana Martinez*
