Dolly Ella Clark Gullo born in 1930 in Zavala, Texas to John Taylor Clark and Gladys Mae (Morris) Clark. Dolly left this world on July 14, 2025 in Magnolia, TX. She leaves behind daughter Linda Gullo Rodriguez (Roddy), sons Tony Gullo (Donna), Corky Gullo (Mary) and Sparky Gullo (Debbie). Grandchildren...DeLena McEwen (Corey), Anthony Rodriguez (Pieper), Brett Rodriguez (Maegan), Ashley Gullo, Garrett Waldrum (Holly), Chelsey McGhee (Matt), Tony Gullo, Jr. (Virginia), Brooke Fredrich (Alex), Grant Gullo (Taylor) and Michael Gullo. Also 20 great grand children with number 21 due in October. Numerous nieces and nephews.

Dolly is predeceased by her husband of 71 years, Anthony Gullo, her daughter, Penny Gullo Waldrum, grandson Austin Gullo, her parents and her two brothers, WB Clark and Johnny Clark and sister, Ethel Clark Mitchell.

Dolly and her family came to live in Magnolia at the sawmill when she was 7 years old and she graduated Valedictorian at Magnolia High in 1948.

Early years of her marriage to Antone were spent raising her 5 children and moving around the oil field with Antone. Later she would support Antone in his early career in the car business and then with the Gullo Family Dealerships.

Dolly went to college at Harding University and Sam Houston State University and received a degree in education. She taught in many places and when she moved back to Magnolia would teach 10 years at Magnolia Elementary.

Dolly had a passion for tennis. After all of her children left home, her daughter Penny and her played doubles tennis with Jack Rabbit Tennis League for 30 years.

Dolly has always been an active member in the church. She devoted each morning to Bible study. Her Bible could always be found on the kitchen table where she studied. She was a member of Magnolia church of Christ for the last 56 years. She taught Ladies Bible class for many years. Her Dad, John T. Clark and Paul Rainey were charter members of the Magnolia Church of Christ. Because of those two men the Lord's church is in Magnolia.

God was first in Dolly's life. She passed that on to her children, in-laws, her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mom was always there for her kids and grands. She worked Little League Baseball concession stands, she made doll clothes for school Fall Festivals, dance costumes, soft ball coach and chauffeured us to our many activities. She single handily raised us five kids. Dad would always tell people she did it all. You could hear the pride in his voice when he told people she did it all. He was the proudest that she showed us the love of God, taught us to be respectful of all people, if we messed up to own up and to be hard workers. Dad worked hard to provide for us so the raising was left up to Mom 24/7, 365 days. She made sure we had a good breakfast before school. We had fresh clean ironed clothes everyday. She never did anything for herself it was all about us. Mazoo as the grands called her was very involved in their lives as well. She supported many school and sport fundraisers. Mazoo could be seen at many sporting events the grands and great grands were involved in. She attended the grandkids high school graduation, college graduation and weddings. There is no doubt she loved her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren with all of her heart. And we in return loved her very much.

“ We lived a couple blocks away from the Gullo's from 1976 through 1995. Always looked forward to seeing the Christmas decorations and how they grew each year. Tony, Dolly, and their children used to be seated in the pew behind us every Sunday for Church of Christ services. They were great and caring people and Dolly will be missed, the same as Tony by so many people. I can just see them now smiling in Paradise, waiting for the Lord to return and take us all home. With love and condolences to the Gullo and Walker family, may the holy spirit comfort you. Gary and Eileen Poehl

“ I thank God for Dolly Gullo and cherish her wisdom, council and encouragement given me while an elder at Magnolia church of Christ. She loved God with all her heart soul and mind, and it was evident in her life. I just went back through my keep sakes and read letters she sent to me. It brings joy and tears reminding me of how she influenced my life for good and how much I love her.

With love

“ I work for the Gullos for a little bit of 5 years. Her and Tony was great to everyone. Had Christmas for the the unfortunate children I the area. Always something going from hot dogs on the 4th. And at least a steak dinner once a year. Just a fine family. Her dad Johnny Clark was good guy also. School superintendent in Baytown where I grew up. Even the boy Sparky Corky and Anton Junior really great friendly. I didn't know the others that well but I did know Tony and Dolly and Johnny Clark. They always treated me well my condolences to the family and prayers. She'll be a bright star in heaven for sure.!

She would always laugh when I called her the 'matriarch of the Gullo dynasty'—but she truly was. She instilled in her family the values of faith, love, kindness, and devotion to one another. Her influence is a testament to the strength and heart of the entire family, and her legacy will live on for generations.

I will miss you, my dear friend. While my heart aches, I'm comforted knowing you're no longer in pain and have been reunited with Antone. My deepest condolences to her beloved 'dynasty'—may her legacy continue to shine through all of you." ❤️

“ Had the pleasure to be a caregiver for Mr. And Mrs. Gullo. The Gullo’s raised an amazing family! They taught the family the gift of giving throughout the community. Mrs. GULLO gave me many of laughs. I had the opportunity to listen to her sing in church. Such an angelic voice. Dolly will be missed but never forgotten. “ A sweet, beautiful lady has gained her wings. She will be missed by many. She was my son’s first grade teacher. When I would see her out in public, she would always ask me how Duane was doing. May she rest in peace with Jesus. My condolences to the family.
