

Donald Schultz

February 16, 2018

Donald Vernon Schultz died unexpectedly on February 16, 2018. Donald was born on October 2, 1939 to Herbert and Irene Schultz at their home on the corner of Dowdell Road and Kuykendahl in Klein Texas. He would be the oldest of their six children. He was a graduate of Klein High School and began working after school as a butcher. He married Claudean Pyle in 1966, and they had two children, Deana and David. In 1990, he and Claudean would divorce and in 1993 he married Vivian Preckwinkle Peebles. They would have celebrated 25 years of marriage February 27th. He was a loving Husband, Dad, Brother, Uncle, Grandpa, Great Grandpa and Friend. He always had a smile on his face, was funny, would do anything for anyone and loved cars, even at a young age.

During his career he worked for Minimax, Gerlands, Wilsons and Klein's Supermarkets. He took a small break from being a butcher and worked for Klein ISD as a tax assessor, which only lasted about a year. After that, he opened Schultz's Meat Market and served the Klein community for several years. When he decided to close the meat market, he went back to work at Klein's Supermarket where he retired after more than 25 years.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Herbert and Irene, and a brother Leonard. He is survived by his loving wife Vivian Schultz, his daughter Deana and husband Jeff, his son David and wife Monica, his step daughter Sheri, his step sons Bruce and Brian, his sister Erline and husband Bobby, brothers Harvey, Chester and Russell and his wife Donna; his grand children Neesen, Nico, Austin, Noah, Cheryl, Zachary, Jordan, and Jessica, and great grand child Laney as well as numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
