“ Dorothy Mae Burge

Dorothy Mae, lovingly known as Mom, Momma, and Mema, was born on January 20, 1938, in Houston, Texas, and peacefully departed this life on November 9, 2025. She lived her years with a gentle heart, steady faith, and a quiet strength that touched everyone who knew her.

Dorothy was a woman of deep compassion, guided always by her love for God and her devotion to her family. Her children were the joy of her life, and she nurtured them with patience, tenderness, and unwavering care. Her home was a place of warmth, comfort, and welcome, where love was felt in every gesture, every lesson, and every meal she prepared.

She found joy in simple, beautiful things: sewing with thoughtful hands, tending to her yard under Texas sunlight, and cooking meals that brought family and friends together around the table. These everyday acts were her art, her way of loving, and her legacy.

Dorothy's life was defined by love—quiet, steady, giving love—and that love lives on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.

She will be deeply missed, remembered always, and cherished forever.

*God called her home to Heaven,
where gardens never fade.
Her gentle spirit rests now in the peace that faith has made.*
