“ Dottie, when I saw your picture, I regretted even more that I had not seen you in person over all these many years. I remember you with joy, when I think of days in the convent. You were funny, a bit mischievous, a pleasure to be around. It is clear that

“ Dottie was a treasure to all who knew her. She brings a smile when I think of her. Funny, charming, and deeply religious, she was more than her parts -- a big soul filled with love.
