“ Hello. I'm not sure the Dorothy Duhamel that I'm writing about is the same person I use to know. If not, my sincere apologies. I knew a Dorothy Duhamel in 1980 when I lived in Vacaville, California. The Dorothy I knew was married to a Navy man by the name

The Dorothy I knew was married to David, an officer in the Navy. He worked at Merritt Island near the San Francisco Bay area. We used to get together with my then wife and play card and board games. I was stationed at Travis Air Force Base near Vacaville. I'm sorry I haven't checked this post in such a long time. When I was retrained, I was required to drive to Mississippi for training and stopped in Texas to visit. They were the nicest people. I know her then husband had died. He was very tall had had the look of Abraham Lincoln. I'm so very sorry Dorothy passed so early in life but I do hope she was happy.

Hello Greg, I'm sorry it's taken so long to respond. I'm her daughter, my mom was never married to a man named David. . Thank you for all of your service defending our country. With that I salute you. Also, I'm so happy to hear that you enjoyed Texas. I wish you luck in finding the Dorothy your looking for. Along, with continued health.
