I also went to high school with Dick (Blackford in San Jose), and played in band with him. Hadn't seen him since he graduated before me. We also both got to play with the Kenton Band in our careers. He was a good player, and a good guy.

“ In memory of Dick Wilkie-A fine and honest musician. He was passionate about doing his best, and certainly encouraged the rest of us to do likewise. He was generous to a fault. I was so glad I got to know him and work with him. He has gone on as we all s

“ Wilkie!

I've already missed you, having moved away and being out of touch for several years now.

We played waaaay too many shows together (from Toomie to "Galveston the Musical" to so many extensions at Caruso), and I will forever be happily informed
