“ Our family is deeply saddened by the unexpected loss of our brother Ed, Yes, his smile really would light up the whole room and his dark piercing eyes were captivating. He was a caring, compassionate and gentle man who dreamed of a better world. He is surely in one now and at peace in his soul. I have beautiful life memories and pictures of Ed which I will now cherish. You are gone but never forgotten. I will always love you. I hope to see your beaming face again one day in glory.
