He was my father. My friend my hero.. my mentor. My advisor. My running buddy my accomlise..sometimes the court jester my inspiration my idol... grandpa ed .. bubba.. Big Ed most of all he was my dad... he may not have been perfect but to me he was I don't know when I'll find a voice again he was my voice as well I've never known loss like this loss. I can't wait to see him again along with all the others we've lost for this horrible horrible thing called cancer count the days till I see him again Dad I love you

I would know your name I saw you in heaven

Joe forester - March 03, 2023 at 01:09 PM

I'm sorry ,Joe.
I've never felt loss like this before either. God Bless

Russell Watson - March 03, 2023 at 01:37 PM

Bless to my father. Love you Russell and Joe.

Tracy Forester'Pritzker - March 03, 2023 at 04:49 PM

Love you too Tracy, believe it or not. In addition to all the memories flooding me since Tuesday, he's been in every dream since. I told him for whatever reason even before, he was in my dreams more than anyone. I'm also thinking about how many times we talked about how much he wanted to see all of us together in peace again before he went & that's heavy on my mind today. Maybe someday...

Russell Watson - March 03, 2023 at 05:30 PM

I sent you a text Russell. Did you get it? ❤️❤️ I miss dad so much! He was really my first love I so looked up to him when I was a little girl.

Tracy Forester Pritzker - March 03, 2023 at 11:31 PM

I didn't. I didn't because I blocked everyone that was in that crazy group text a year ago. I hate group texts. I hate when I get thrown into them without my consent but most of all I hate my own anger issues & overreactions to things. I'm still working on that. 281-773-0033

Karen Forester

Charlie and I are so hurt that you are gone. We grieve along with your sweet wife, Lupe and the rest of your family and friends who loved you so dearly. You will forever be in our hearts and on our minds. I know we will see you again one day.

13 Brothers and sisters, we want you to know about people who have died[a] so that you won't mourn like others who don't have any hope. 14 Since we believe that Jesus died and rose, so we also believe that God will bring with him those who have died in Jesus. 15 What we are saying is a message from the Lord: we who are alive and still around at the Lord's coming definitely won't go ahead of those who have died. 16 This is because the Lord himself will come down from heaven with the signal of a shout by the head angel and a blast on God's trumpet. First, those who are dead in Christ will rise. 17 Then, we who are living and still around will be taken up together with them in the clouds to meet with the Lord in the air. That way we will always be with the Lord. 18 So encourage each other with these words.

Daddy talking about his sweet grandmother Lula May Forester West and his mother Norma L Crooks Forester. It was always about the lemon meringue pie and chicken and dumplings! Lol. Which is why when I went to visit I made a big pot! It was so awesome to share a bowl of dumplings with my father.

*Awww. I love this Tracy. So sweet to have him on camera, reminiscing.
Yes...Norma made the best chicken and dumplings and lemon meringue pie. Everytime your dad came for a visit, she'd make him that pie. For Charlie she'd make a carrot cake. I learned from Norma how to make her chicken and dumplings. So good.*

“ My name is Billy and I am the youngest blood son of Ed Forester.

I say the following with love in my heart and no bitterness...at all.....

I can't relate to any of the posts on this wall. It's like I'm reading fond memories of a person I have never known.

Everything I remember of my father has faded into the past. I got to see him old, grey and dying with a cigarette in his mouth. No invites to casinos or tubes down the river.

Again, I'm not sad or upset. To the contrary, my father lived his life to the fullest and did it his way to the end. He just happened to do it all without me (and I'm ok with it).

RIP.

It Foster was a great man and a great father. He was a greatest stepfather too. Had grandkids too. God took a wonderful man. I knew him since he married my sister Lupe. He gave her a wonderful life except her kids without any doubt. Whoever choose not to be in his life that was their choice. He was always there with his door open so you could walk in at any time. I love seeing him jokes smile. I could call him anytime and ask him about my income tax. Ask him any questions that he would give me a correct answer about my social security and my girls love him. I have five beautiful girls and they love him to death. They're hurting so much that he's gone and no longer with us. They have so many memories that they also choose to go and see him and visit him whenever he was there. Like I said the door was always open. It was their choice to go and be in his life. We have no regrets either. We love our Ed Foster. He was a wonderful man. Father, grandfather

Uncle Ed you were such a great man! Thank you for taking such good care of my Tia and your kids and grandkids. The phone and invites worked both ways but it's ok Uncle Ed because of respect for you we will continue to be loving even to those who don't deserve it. We love you so much and it's about being peaceful and respectful because that's what everyone needs right now. I'm so glad I was able to see you before you passed because I will remember those moments forever. We love you and you will always be in our hearts forever. Love your niece Tricia Nelson

“ Bubba, because that's how I've always known you, from the day we met when I was dating Charlie. You were always such a fun filled, lively, sweetheart of a guy, but ever so mischievous, like you dad. I'm so thankful to know that you are now without pain. You are reunited with Tiny and Norma and all others of family and friends who went on before you. Best of all, I picture you running into the arms of Jesus. Though we all grieve for you so strongly, this is not goodbye, my dear brother, because we will see you again. Love you Bubba Forester.
