

Elijah Lawson

September 30, 2023

Elijah went home to be with the Lord on September, 30th 2023, at the age of 38. Eli was born in Tomball, Texas to Terry and Lisa Lawson. Eli was a beautiful man that had a unique personality. His energy, love and compassion for everyone was undeniable. His aura lit up a room. He always loved spending time with his family but especially during holidays. He participated in all festivities. He was a skilled craftsman and loved to work. His hobbies included: fishing, cooking and playing golf. Eli graduated from Tomball High School in 2003. Eli was baptized as a child at Graceview Baptist Church. Eli was an active member at Bayou City Fellowship and loved sharing the gospel. He was a great example of what it means to be a Christian. Eli is survived by his father, Terry Lawson and Mother, Lisa Lawson, sister Amy Vick; husband Derrick Vick Sr. and nephews, Derrick Vick Jr. and Darius Vick, sister, Sarah Lawson. Former spouse and step son, Whitney White, Hayden White, Beloved Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and Friends.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Lawson family and friends during this difficult time.

“ Eli's shine was one of the brightest I've ever known. I consider u now, and always wil, a brother to me, I'll always remember the good ol days and the positive memories of u man. The late night high school parties to doin grown folk shit, ur drive and ambition in life, taught me a lot about myself man, and I've always looked up to u. I've known u Eli for over 20 years. I love u brother and u will forever be missed. May I send all my love to ur family my bro, and I will see u on the other side. Ur boy, Kev.

“ I have SO many fun memories with Eli. He was full of life, had a huge heart, & always made me laugh. My favorite memory probably has to be when he came over to help me get a live bat out of my house that came in through the fireplace. As terrified as I was, he gave me so many laughs that day. My deepest condolences to the whole family including Whitney & Hayden. Eli is forever imprinted in our hearts. To know him was to love him. Praying for you all.

“ Memories? Oh there are many. Maybe a bit too many! But he was an absolute pillar. I considered Eli my close brother & most know this as a fact. I can literally remember the moment we became friends & the last time that I saw & spoke to you. Brother Man...I will see you on the 50 yard line, again, one day..

*I'm so sorry for those who have loved Eli. He was so full of life, honest, genuine, bright during the time I was around him. His faith was real. Eli was one who made our Bible study authentic; no question or thought was off limits. I will remember his smile and bear hug forever. For Eli's family and other friends, I'm praying for your heart aches.

Whitney, I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers go out to you, Hayden and Eli's family.

Jill Vandygriff - October 03, 2023 at 09:16 PM

Oh Whitney - I don't even have words. I know the hurt runs deep and our Father knows 💔. I am praying that Eli has found peace and that you and Hayden will remember the best of times.

Kelly Lanphear - October 03, 2023 at 09:58 PM

Eli was one of the best people I have ever known and I will surely miss my friend.
