“ I will remember that even when Gordon was facing health challenges, he was funny, kind and encouraging to his co-workers. I don't think he ever met a stranger and he always made you feel at ease.

The smile on his face endeared him to all. He will be

“ *He came into our lives so quick and so bright.
His presence so bold and yet so right.
The children they loved him and we did too.
He forever changed us when he walked in the room.
He will never be forgotten, his impact was that great.*
