“ Dear Eric, I am very sad to hear the news of you passing. I will always cherish the memories we had together in Vung Tau and the fun we had together. May you rest in peace!

“ I am really shocked to hear this news. In my mind, he is a handsome, healthy, energetic manager. He always brings a bottle of detox water to the office and lives a healthy lifestyle. The years as a director at M-I Vietnam were the most brilliant period of the company with highest revenue and profit. We remember him as a passionate leader with many new ideas. I will always remember the smile of him when he received the Friendship Medal from the Vietnamese Government and was on local television. I wish his family health and strength to overcome this difficult time.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences.

He was the one who recruited me, and I will always be grateful for that. He was a brilliant, decisive leader who commanded the respect and admiration of everyone who worked with him.

We are deeply saddened by the news of his passing.

He will always be remembered with great respect and gratitude.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences.

Though we are halfway across the world, our hearts are with you. I had the privilege of working closely with him for many years, and he left a lasting impression on me and everyone on our team in Vietnam.

He led not just with experience, but with quiet strength and genuine care. He never raised his voice, never pushed people down — instead, he lifted us up, believed in us, and helped us grow. We always felt respected, supported, and safe under his leadership.

It's hard to put into words how much he meant to us. He wasn't just our boss — he was someone we admired and looked up to, someone whose values will stay with us.

Thank you for sharing him with us. We will miss him dearly and carry his memory forward with honor.

With sympathy and warmth,

From his team in Vietnam

“ Dear Miriam, Max & Rik and all family, and dear friends & (former) school (and Renswoude) and (former) colleagues of Eric,

As part of a close-knit-group of youth-friends (end eighties / early nineties) we are truly touched by Eric's recent passing.

We will never forget him and his great personality.

His smile, his laughter, his ideas and creativity, his great sense of humor, his ability to really focus and tune in, his cleverness, his streetwise-ness, his kindness, his love for his family & friends, his true and honest attention for other people, to name a few of his great characteristics.

We will always cherish the loving, grand memories of Eric.

"God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around you and whispered "come to me."

With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away.

Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best..."

Rest in peace dear Eric, we love you, eternally.

*To Mr. Eric's family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Eric was a kind and respected leader. It was an honor to work with him, and I learned so much from his guidance.
During his time working at M-I Vietnam, all of us truly admired and cared for him. He was not only a great boss, but also someone we deeply respected. His passing has left a great sadness in our hearts.
My thoughts are with you and your family during this difficult time.
With heartfelt sympathy,
Viet Ha (Mi Viet Nam)*

“ I was devastated to hear of Eric's untimely passing. Eric was simply a terrific person and a wonderful colleague. We bonded over his stories of earlier years spent in Nigeria — my home country — and those moments reflected his authenticity and warmth.

He was always professional, thoughtful, and deeply knowledgeable. I especially remember his calm expertise and support during the complex start-up phase of a major project in Guyana.

One memory that stands out is from when I was made redundant. Eric noticed my work email had bounced and immediately reached out via LinkedIn with a message that read:

“Hi Anthony, I noticed today your email bounced. Sorry to have seen you left. Hope all is OK on your side man, and all the best with your future endeavors. Cheers, Eric.”

That was Eric in a nutshell — considerate, aware, and always kind. Adieu, buddy. My prayers are with your family, and may the good Lord comfort and strengthen all those you left behind. My heartfelt sympathy and sincere condolences to your loved ones.

“ I mostly knew Eric as a colleague but over the past 4 years came to consider him a close friend. Eric didn't do anything at less than 100%. Whether work, hobbies, cars, or family.....Eric was "all-in". Although we did not spend much time together outside of work, we shared many discussions about family, kids, life as expats, and it was always evident how much he loved and cared for those closest to him. Eric exemplified to me work ethic, commitment, and loyalty.....and that is what makes his sudden passing so shocking and difficult to process.

I find it difficult to convey the sympathy I feel for his family and friends but I pray that they somehow feel strength and support during this difficult time.
