

Ernest Medlin

December 28, 2024

Ernest Clifton Medlin, formerly, Ernest Clifton Patrick, Jr. of Magnolia, Texas, was born in Memphis, Tennessee to Joann Medlin, formerly Joann Patrick and her husband, Ernest Clifton Patrick, Sr.

When he was 11 years old, he moved to find his final home in Texas. Ernest got his high school honors while serving in the military during the Vietnam War. He was enlisted from 1968-1974 and though he saw many troubled times he made lasting friendships that he carried with him his entire life. After returning home he lived a life of hard work and dedication not only to his work but also his family and friends. Ernest was an amazing father and husband who always loved playing pranks on his kids and goofing around with his family. He was also an avid reader and huge movie buff who always loved to share the newest books he had read or movies he had seen. He would move mountains to make sure those around him were on the right track and doing well. In his long life he made lasting impressions that will always stay with us and will be deeply missed. Ernest is survived by his wife, Nancy Jean Medlin; his children; Jennifer Rae Nielsen, Robert Kyle Medlin and Carla Alise Medlin. Ernest is also survived by grandchildren Christopher Scott Medlin and Eden Nicole Fox as well as by his sisters Debby and husband, Nick; Melodye and husband, Rich; his niece Teresa Jarel and husband, Jason along with many other family members and friends.
