Mr. Glowski, I never had the chance to say “I’m sorry for being young and stupid”. More than that, “thank you”. - R. Davis

“ I remember Floyd as a smiling bear of a man that had a gift of gab. His eyes would light up when telling his stories at family gatherings. I can't begin to know what your family is feeling and experiencing at this time, but you are always in my thoughts and prayers.

“ How great it was to visit with Floyd every time! We always laughed, solved all the world problems, and truly loved, enjoyed, and appreciated each other. Thankfully, I still have the bottle of wine he gave me last Christmas and it will be a forever remembrance. Always he would ask me to keep working for him, and I am glad I did. He was a special friend, client, and shared the same opinions. Memories of Floyd are pleasant and will hear his comments and views and laughter forever with joy.
