“ I will miss Miss Gertrude so much! I am her home health nurse and i always looked forward to her welcoming smile. Sometimes it was a challenge to help her with all of her medical issues but she bravely struggled on to the best of her ability. I wish I had known her when she was young—bet she was something else! “ Gertrude’s father and my father (Willie Simmons) were first cousins. When Gertrude visited the D.C. area she would always spend a day or sometimes a night with our family. We enjoyed her being with us so much. We had a lot of fun talking, eating and laughing. Now her race is done. She made it to the finish line. Rest in heavenly peace dear cousin.
