

Gustavo Adolfo Rojas

March 3, 2021

On Wednesday, March 3, 2021, Gustavo Adolfo Rojas, loving husband, and father of 5 passed away at the age of 58.

The family requests that all in attendance at the Funeral service, please wear masks and practice social distancing.

Gustavo was born on August 23, 1962 In Cali, Colombia to Mario Rojas and Maria Lila Ramirez.

He was a passionate man whose first love was his family. He met his wife Yanira in 1993 and they went forward start a family which gave them 3 loving Children. Gian Carlo, Nathaly, Evany and 2 kids from a prior relationship Gustavo Adolfo JR. and Isais and three beautiful grandkids.

Gustavo's first passion after his family was soccer. One of his greatest memories was going to Italy for the world cup. He came back with a love for Italy that nobody can ever deny. You saw the love and pride when his kids played sports and how he pushed to make them great at the sport. If Colombia was playing, he was watching!

He was a character and everyone that knows him has a story to tell.

With a heavy heart he leaves behind his wife and children. Brothers and sisters, Mario, Maria Eugenia, Ana Milena, Olga, Liliana, and Enrique. Lots of nieces and nephews and a loving family in the United States and Colombia.

The condolences of the Addison family and staff go out to the Rojas family and friends.
