“ Im Oliver Brandstrup Olsen from Denmark (Known as Thesarous)

I met R. J. Frost 2 or 3 years ago on Everquest 2, He meant a lot to me, i knew much about him and he told me everything, as i told him everything. Im going to miss the smile and positivity he always carried with him. He laughed, he played a lot of music, and he was fair.

He spoke of God and the Devil, but his heart was pure and i know his a better place now, waiting for his brothers and sisters of Sau Sponte to reunited with him. He made me laugh, he made me happy, he made me look positiv at everything, he told me to follow my dreams, and now he made me cry. To me I did not lose a Guild Leader from a game, or lose a friend, no.. i lost a brother, a family member.

I will never forget Frost, he will always have a place in my heart and my mind, Im thinking about him everyday to guide me through everything i must go through.

Im going to miss him so bad, and the family of R. J. Frost needs to know he meant a lot to many, and i will always be there to support everyone he loved.

Im sending my Condolences to his family and loved ones.

(Keep fighting for those you love, Keep fight for you dreams, and never forget you family)

Rest In Peace Brother

you gonna be missed! I never got a chance to say goodbye to you.

Robert James Frost, we will meet one day, my life just begun, but i cant wait till we meet again.

Thesarous.

“ I first met Frost on Everquest 2, many years ago when he was called Magnefrost in the guild Safe Haven. He was always willing to listen, chat, help, quest, and everything else that can happen in the game. He like many others left the game to take a break. When he came back, I welcomed him back like he had never left. For years he tried to get me to join his guild, even though I didn't, we always spoke to each other.

He also had good taste in music.

He grouped with me and my family in EQ2 in early July. It turned into a great memory for all that attended. Everyone was so excited to see him again and to know who he was. For many remembered him fondly as Magnefrost. (He had told me not to tell people his new in-game name, till that day, I had honored his request.(I also cleared it with him before telling them who he was)).

I am going to miss this guy, even now, I still expect to see him log on. We tried to meet up with him as we found out that we lived only about an hour away, it just never happened. I regret that, as he told me in June he was waiting on car repairs.

He won the bet, the last thing I had spoken to him about was, he bet me I would never figure out what Shores Abbir`Nephesh meant.

I will do what he suggested and I am going to make a some donations to the local veterans group in the fall. I am however, going to put it in his name.

Love you big guy, we will see you again one day.
