“ I am so sorry for your loss. Jimmy was my first nephew, and I remember like yesterday when I first met him when he was a little boy. I remember our road trip to Yellowstone, and how cute he was. He was such a quiet little guy. I remember riding in that old car from Portland to Yellowstone with a bunch of kids, including Jimmy, in the back seat (with the seat removed to make more room). I don't remember that he ever melted down or threw a tantrum like most little kids would while on a long road trip. I wish I could have spent more time with him as he was growing up and gotten to know the person he was. I do know he was a lovely person.
