

Janice Wulf

August 16, 2017

Janice Marie Keeley Wulf, 84, of Magnolia and longtime resident of Houston, died Wednesday morning on August 16, 2017.

She was born on Monday, January 23, 1933 to James and Selma Keeley on Staten Island, New York, and was the younger sister of Gloria Keeley Patterson. She grew up and lived in the house built by her father until shortly after her marriage.

After her marriage brought her to Houston, then being dissolved many years later, she ended up with the hard but loving work of raising 3 daughters, Karen, Kimberly, and Kristine. Sadly a fourth daughter was lost due to a miscarriage at 6 months.

Janice was preceded in death by her parents, sister, and youngest daughter.

Family members she is survived by include daughter, Karen Langley; daughter Kimberly Wulf and boyfriend Gregory McAlpin; daughter Kristine Diaz and husband Ernest. Grandchildren include Jill Sims and husband Joseph; Pamela Brockermeier and husband Matthew; Elisabeth Vaculik and husband Curt; Laura Johnson and husband Charles; and Gabrielle, Rachael, and Julian Diaz. Great Grandchildren include Holden, Ryland, and Declan

Sims; Riley and Aubrey Brockermeyer; Cole and Zoe Vaculik plus one; and Graham, June, and Clay Johnson. She is also survived by other loving relatives and friends.
